SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES.

Joe Godfrey Anxious to Go On With Jim Corbett To-Night.

The Coming Entertainment of the Xavier Athletic Association.

Jim Corbett, the California heavy-weight boxer, will attempt to-night in Madison Square Garden the novel feat of putting out three good men in a total of nine rounds, or three rounds for each man. Four-corner gloves will be used. Two of the men have already been decided upon. They are Joe Lannon, of this city, and Bob Caffrey, of Philadelphia. George Godfrey, the colored heavy-weight of Boston, wants to be the third contestant, as may be gathered from the following telegram, which was received this morning by Billy Muldoon, who will manage the exhibition:

BOSTON, Feb. 16.—Will be at Madison Square Garden Tuesday night prepared to meet Jim Corbett.

In case Godfrey does not appear, Bill Spillings, of this city, will very likely be decided upon as the third man. With three such men as Lannon, Godfrey and Caffrey to best in three rounds each, Corbett has imposed a great task upon himself.

Lannon is a man who can stand a vast amount of punishment. Godfrey is considered by some as the best of the lot. He stood up against Jake Klarin for forty-two rounds in San Francisco about a year ago. Caffrey is a big, powerful fellow, with a limited reputation, but capable of standing some very hard punches.

Corbett weighs about 105 pounds. He claims he never felt more eager to make an exhibition of his prowess than he does today. He will not attempt to knock his men clear out, but only to put them in such condition that they will be unable to get away. Corbett's friends feel somewhat dubious as to the result of the contests. They claim that three rounds is a short time to decide who have demonstrated that they are stayers.

If Corbett does finish off his opponents in the time specified, he will enjoy an unique position in the ranks of the fighters.

The musical, dramatic, literary and athletic entertainment to be given by the Xavier Athletic Association, in the rooms of Francis Xavier's College on Feb. 25, promises to be one of the leading social features in athletic circles this season. A farce will be produced by the New York Society of the Corner. Among those who will appear in the cast are J. Rowan, Bill Hart, Joe Maxwell, Charles Von Barr, Ed. Plunkett and J. Clark.

There will be rope climbing by Champion Sandoval, high jumping by Sweeney and Club with the Brooklyn Amateur Boxing Club, New Jersey Athletic Club, Citizens Van Buren will have charge of the leading social features in athletic circles this season. A farce will be produced by the New York Society of the Corner. Among those who will appear in the cast are J. Rowan, Bill Hart, Joe Maxwell, Charles Von Barr, Ed. Plunkett and J. Clark.

Considerable interest is being manifested and money is being freely posted on the result of the Halligan and Lynch tournament, to be held at the Hotel Manhattan Hall, on Broadway, between 125th and 130th Streets, on Feb. 25. Lynch is still training at the grounds of the West Side Athletic Club, and runs daily there. His manager, Mr. John Conroy, says that the articles of agreement state that each of the men must weigh 122 pounds six hours before the bout, and that if he fails to do so, Lynch has no right to weight 90 cwt. Lynch has made rapid progress during his training. His muscles have hardened up and he is in good fix already. Halligan is now in full training at his studio in Prospect Park. He is in excellent shape. The bout is almost certain to be a rattling one.

Within the last two weeks the A. A. U. has purchased property at the Station Hotel, A. A. U., the Hickory Club, the corner of the corner, A. A. U., the Berkeley A. C. and the Bank Club, A. A. U. The first three resigned from the Hickory Club, and the Bank Club, A. A. U. It is thought that the Manhattan, A. A. U., is about ready to resign also. Even in the face of these hard facts, the A. A. U. officials seem to be confident that the Metropolitan Association can hold its own.

Peter Maher and B. B. Fitzsimmons will fight before the public at the Club, New Orleans, on March 2. That fact has been known since the battle appears but little interest in it here, although increased. Peter Maher is guarding his secret well, and it is not known whether he will fight again. From what Maher has said in the past it is safe to infer that Maher will be in the ring at the Crescent City before the battle. He is reported to be in excellent condition. Fitzsimmons according to all reliable sources, will be at Bayou La Batre, large, strong and in excellent condition. The men will journey to New Orleans to be present at the meeting.

Through the efforts of its President, A. G. Wigand, the Mount Morris Turners are making rapid progress as an athletic organization.

The Standard Athletic Club of Greenpoint has arranged for a very prominent athlete to enter the club next Saturday night. Several of the best boxers, which are advertised as pure, that are known, will be present at the meeting. The Tammany Club, the president of Justice Justus to succeed Andrew Jackson, and the Anti-Suffrage Committee shall be legislated out of the club. The Tammany Club will appoint John C. Sheehan, the present secretary to the committee, to one of the vacant seats.
